

ATA IMS BERHAD

Anti Bribery and Corruption Policy

Introduction

ATA IMS Berhad and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as the "Group") are committed to conduct all of its business in a legal, honest and ethical manner. Business is being conducted with full integrity and no corruption of all forms is allowed in the Group's daily operations.

The Code of Ethics and Conduct of the Group approved by the Board sets out the core principles in relation to anti-bribery and corruption whereby the Group upholds highest standards of integrity in all business interactions and zero-tolerance towards conflict of interest to prohibit any and all forms of bribery, corruption, extortion and embezzlement (covering promising, offering, giving or accepting any bribes).

Commitment

All business dealings should be transparently performed and accurately reflected on records. Monitoring and enforcement procedures shall be implemented to ensure compliance with anti-corruption laws and best practices.

Therefore, policies and procedures as well as its enforcement on anti-corruption are implemented in compliance to the Main Market Listing Requirements of the Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad and guided by the Guidelines on Adequate Procedures issued pursuant to Section 17A(5) of the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission Act 2009 (MACC). The Policy leverages on the principles set out in the Group's Code of Ethics and Conduct.

Objective

To take the reasonable and proportionate measures to ensure the business environment is free of corruption. These measures would be implemented in the form of policies and procedures, communication and enforcement to ensure they are effective at all times.

Scope

The Policy is applicable to ATA IMS Berhad, its controlled subsidiaries, the Board of Directors, all employees of the Group and any/or any person(s) associated with the Group.

Anti Bribery and Corruption Policy

Definition of Bribery & Corruption

"Bribery & Corruption" is defined as any action which would be considered as an offence of giving or receiving "gratification" under the MACC. Such acts involve offering, giving, receiving or soliciting something of value in an attempt to illicitly influence the decisions or actions of a person who is in a position of trust within an organisation. Corruption of all kinds (i.e. anything of value, such as money, goods, services, privileges, employment position or preferential treatment) is prohibited.

"Gratification" is defined in the MACC to mean the below:

- a) money, donation, gift, loan, fee, reward, valuable security, property or interest in property being property of any description whether movable or immovable, financial benefit, or any other similar advantage;
- b) any office, dignity, employment, contract of employment or services, and agreement to give employment or render services in any capacity;
- c) any payment, release, discharge or liquidation of any loan, obligation or other liability, whether in whole or in part;
- d) any valuable consideration of any kind, any discount, commission, rebate, bonus, deduction or percentage;
- e) any forbearance to demand any money or money's worth or valuable thing;
- f) any other service or favour of any description, including protection from any penalty or disability incurred or apprehended or from any action or proceedings of a disciplinary, civil or criminal nature, whether or not already instituted, and including the exercise or the forbearance from the exercise of any right or any official power of duty; and
- g) any offer, undertaking or promise, whether conditional or unconditional, of any gratification within the meaning of any of the preceding paragraphs (a) to (f)

GUIDANCE ON COMMON FORMS OF CORRUPTION

1. Gifts

The general principle set out in this Policy does not allow the directors and employees from receiving or giving gift to external parties if it is made with the intention of influencing the third party to obtain or retain business, or in exchange of favours.

Lavish or unreasonable gifts should not be accepted as it may be interpreted as attempts to receive favourable business treatment for personal benefits.

Any gift, other than the token value as stipulated in Code of Ethics and Conducts, will only be permitted in the following conditions, subject to approval by Top Management, that the gifts are:

- limited, customary and lawful
- not affect/influence any independent business judgement

Anti Bribery and Corruption Policy

- not perceived to have any effect or favour on decision

changes made to the Risk Registers annually (or on more frequent basis if circumstances require so) as reported by the Audit Committee after their review of Bribery and Corruption Risk Report presented by the ABC Compliance Committee to ensure acceptability of the residual risks.

The Board is ultimately responsible for the Group's ABC Management and approving the appropriate ABC policy.

Control Measures

i. Financial Controls

The Group shall implement relevant financial controls that manage bribery and corruption risks and to manage its financial transactions properly and to record these transactions accurately, completely and in a timely manner.

Relevant financial controls are documented in the relevant standard operating procedures and work instructions maintained by the Group.

ii. Non-Financial Controls

The Group shall implement relevant non-financial controls that manage bribery and corruption risks and to manage with respect to such areas as procurement, operational, sales, commercial, human resources, legal and regulatory activities.

Relevant non-financial controls are documented in the relevant standard operating procedures and work instructions maintained by the Group.

iii. Due Diligence

Due diligence will be conducted on any relevant parties or personnel before entering into any official relationship with the Group. These include a search through relevant databases, background checks, document verification and self-declaration.

Due diligence shall also be carried out on any Business Associates that act on behalf of the Group, to ensure this entity is not likely to commit corruption.

Relevant due diligence process for Third Party are documented in the relevant standard operating procedures and work instructions maintained by the Group.

Reporting Channel

Anti Bribery and Corruption Policy

If any employee believes reasonably and in good faith that corruption exist in the Group, the employee should report this immediately to the appropriate level of management or based on the staff grievance procedure for employees.

If it is appropriate and for customers and other stakeholders, in view of the nature of the reported matter, reports of violations may be made directly to the Executive Chairman and Executive Director.

However, if for any reason the employee is reluctant to do so or the stakeholder concerned is of the opinion that the matter is not satisfactorily resolved, then the employee or the stakeholder should report the concerns to the Audit Committee Chairman via the whistle blowing channel as per the Whistle Blowing Policy and Procedure published on the Company's corporate website.

The reporting, investigation and responses on wrongdoings shall go through the mechanism set out under the Group's Whistle Blowing Policy which is available on the Group's website.

The identity and personal information of the whistleblower will be protected and kept confidential, unless otherwise required by law. The whistleblower will be protected from reprisal, including any form of harassment and victimisation, as a consequence of his/her genuine disclosure.
